21-A-0468 v.3

January 3, 2020

Joint Session of Congress – Electoral College Vote Certification

Bottom Line Up Front:

- On Wednesday, January 6, 2021, the 117th United States Congress will gather for a joint session in the chamber of the House of Representatives to certify the counting of the electoral votes.
- There are some representatives and senators who plan to challenge the votes during this session, which will allow the objection to move forward.<sup>1 2</sup>
- The Intelligence and Interagency Coordination Division is currently tracking several protests slated to take place on Capitol grounds and elsewhere in Washington, DC, on January 5, 2021, and January 6, 2021, and some protesters have indicated they plan to be armed. There is also indication that white supremacist groups may be attending the protests.<sup>3</sup>
- Detailed information concerning potential counter-protest activity is limited.

Event Summary:

On Wednesday, January 6, 2021, the 117th United States Congress will gather for a joint session in the chamber of the House of Representatives to certify the counting of the electoral votes. The President of the Senate, Vice President of the United States (VPOTUS) Michael Pence, is the presiding officer. If a senator and a representative jointly submit an objection, each would retire to its chamber to consider it. The President and Vice President must achieve a majority of electoral votes (i.e., at least 270 votes) to be elected. In the absence of a majority, the House selects the President, and the Senate selects the Vice President.<sup>4</sup> If neither candidate achieves the required 270 vote minimum, the House then decides the election in accordance with the 12th Amendment of the Constitution. Each state would get one vote with a minimum of 26 votes deciding the winner.

- Analyst Comment: Several representatives plan to challenge the Electoral College votes when Congress officially certifies Joe Biden's victory on January 6, 2021, as long as a Senate Republican joins them in the long-shot effort.<sup>5 6</sup> Approximately twelve senators have indicated they will join the representatives in objecting to the Electoral College results;<sup>7</sup> however, Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) has warned the Senate of taking such an action.<sup>8</sup>*

It should be noted that all 538 electors met Monday, December 14, 2020, in their respective states to cast their votes for president based on the election results that were certified by all 50 states and Washington, D.C.<sup>9</sup>

On Tuesday, December 15, 2020, Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY) officially recognized Joseph Biden as the President-Elect, the day after the Electoral College certified the votes.<sup>10</sup>

On Friday, January 1, 2021, U.S. District Court Judge Jeremy Kernodle, who was appointed by President Donald Trump, dismissed a lawsuit filed by Representative Louie Gohmert (R-TX) and 11 Arizona Republicans that attempted to give Vice President Mike Pence the ability to overturn the results of the November presidential election won by Joe Biden. The 5th Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed the same lawsuit down on Saturday, January 2, 2021.<sup>11</sup>

In an interview Friday evening on pro-Trump news network Newsmax, Representative Gohmert claimed that letting the will of the voters stand would “mean the end of our republic, the end of the experiment in self-government.” Representative Gohmert then seemed to encourage violence as a means to this end. “But bottom line is, the court is saying, ‘We’re not going to touch this. You have no remedy—basically, in effect, the ruling would be that you gotta go to the streets and be as violent as Antifa and BLM.’”<sup>12</sup>

Expected Protests Overview:

A number of individuals and groups are calling for their supporters to travel to Washington, DC, on or before January 6, 2021, to show support for POTUS and for overturning the election results. The protests/rallies are expected to be similar to the previous Million MAGA March rallies in November and December 2020, which drew tens of thousands of participants. It is also expected that members of the Proud Boys (who intend to wear plainclothes and not their traditional yellow and black clothing)<sup>13</sup>, white supremacist groups,<sup>14</sup> Antifa, and other extremist groups will rally on January 6, 2021. Multiple arrests were made as a result of clashes between pro-Trump and opposing groups during each of the November and December rallies. Charges included assault with a dangerous weapon, assault on police, simple assault, weapons violations, riotous acts, and destruction of property, disorderly conduct, resisting arrest, and crossing a police line. A number of law enforcement officers were injured in the skirmishes. Many of the confrontations occurred after the rallies ended.

Pro-Trump Protests:

Women for America First (WAF) is organizing another bus tour that began on December 27, 2020, in Ventura, CA, and will be arriving in Washington, DC, on January 6, 2021, for a rally<sup>15</sup>. A banner on the webpage states, “The President is calling for us to come back to Washington on January 6th for a big protest – ‘Be There, Will Be Wild.’” WAF filed a permit with the U.S. Park Service for 5,000 participants for January 6, 2021, to gather at the Ellipse (southern quadrants). POTUS will be speaking at the Ellipse event and the White House is actively participating in the planning of this event. Several Members of Congress have been invited to attend, but being that Congress will be in session on that day, they may not be able to participate. No members have confirmed participation in this event at the time of the writing of this assessment.

Freedom Plaza will be used for a prayer service at 0900 hours. The USCP Special Events Section (SES) advised that WAF filed a permit request for Union Square (Area 15) for 50 participants, but later withdrew that request.

No groups are expected to march and all are planning to stay in their designated areas.

Analyst Comment: Cindy Chafian, who had been the organizer with Women for America First, has since been removed by the organization. The new point of contact is Kylie Kremer. Ms. Chafian is currently planning a separate protest at the Freedom Plaza location on January 5, 2020. Ms. Chafian now says she is part of the "Eighty Percent Coalition". The organization's website indicates it will be protesting on January 5, 2021, on Freedom Plaza.<sup>16</sup>

Confirmed speakers for this event are:

Alex Jones (InfoWars)

George Papadopoulos (Former Member of President Trumps Foreign Policy Advisory Panel)

Roger Stone (Conservative Political Consultant)

Bernard Kerik (40th NYC Police Commissioner)

Pastor Mark Burns

"Stop the Steal" has posted a webpage entitled "wildprotest.com" that includes a map of the Capitol grounds indicating they will be gathering on the Senate East Front Grassy Area 8 on January 6, 2021.

Analyst Comment: Permits for Areas 8 and 9 have been requested by One Nation Under God (Area 8) and private citizen Bryan Lewis (Area 9) and there is some speculation they are being used as proxies for Stop the Steal. Both permit requesters indicate they will have 50 participants each at their protests.

Stop the Steal has a website <http://www.wildprotest.com> that instructs its followers to gather in/around Area 8 on Capitol grounds on 1/6. A map is included on the website showing the exact location where protesters should gather.<sup>17</sup> It also lists several speakers and many of those speakers are the same as the flyer provided to USCP by One Nation Under God, including Members of Congress. One Nation Under God, when IICD spoke to the organizer to do our assessment, said they were incorporated as an organization for this event only.

The Stop the Steal/Wild Protest webpage states "We the People must take to the U.S. Capitol lawn and steps . . ." They plan to show support for the Members of Congress who are expected to file objections to the certification of the electoral vote. This protests has also been promoted by POTUS. They list the following speakers as confirmed to participate in this event:

Rep. Paul Gosar (R-AZ)

Alex Bruesewitz (Journalist)

Megan Barth (Political Commentator)

Ali Alexander (Head of Stop the Steal)

Scott Presler (Conservative Activist)
Jenny Beth Martin (Tea Party Patriots Founder)
Vernon Jones (Former Democratic Georgia State Representative)
Brandon Straka (Leader of the WalkAway Campaign)
State Rep. Mark Finchem (R-AZ)
State Senator Doug Mastriano (R-NJ)
Shemeka Michelle (Author and Activist)
Ed Martin (Political Commentator)
CJ Pearson (Conservative Activist)
Rose Tennet (Host of Rose Unplugged)
Michael Coudrey (Businessman)
Kimberly Fletcher (Founder of Moms for America)
Melissa Tate (Social Media Influencer)

The webpage also lists several hotels including the Holiday Inn Washington Capitol (550 C St. SW), Washington Marriott at Metro Center (775 12th St NW), and the Holiday Inn Alexandria at Carlyle (Alexandria, VA). MPD has also reported generally that hotels in the DC area are reporting a significant increase in the number of bookings on/around January 6, 2021. According to MPD officials, area hotels are reporting a 60%-100% increase in bookings compared to bookings for the weekend of December 12, 2020. On December 29, 2020, Hotel Harrington, a hotel popular with members of the Proud Boys and white supremacists, announced plans to be closed January 4-6, 2021.<sup>18</sup> Harry's Pub, located within Hotel Harrington, had previously announced it would be closed January 5-6, 2021.<sup>19</sup>

The "wildprotest.com" website also promotes "Patriot Caravans for 45,"<sup>20</sup> which is organizing ridesharing to Washington, DC, for the January 6, 2021 protests/rallies. They are also organizing protests at state capitals and city halls throughout the country. As of January 3, 2020, there are nearly 1,500 posts requesting/offering rides or to caravan from states as far away as Washington and Oregon. This site is being widely shared on social media.

There are also several other permit requests pending with the USCP for this day. SES advised a number of people contacted them regarding filing permits for January 6, 2021, for Capitol Grounds. Bryan Lewis filed for the Senate East Front Grassy Area 9 for 50 participants and Women For a Great America (WFGA)/50+ Days of Blessings filed for the House East Front Grassy Area 10 for 50 participants for January 4, 6, 7, 8, and Area 11 on January 5, 2021. The New York Apostolic Prayer Network (NYAPN) filed an application for January 4 – 10, 2021, for 50 participants. The location of the event is still being worked through with SES as of this writing. The One Nation Under God Foundation filed an application for January 6, 2021, for Area 8 between 0830 and 1800 hrs. Virginia Freedom Keepers filed an application for January 6, 2021, for 50 participants for Area 7 from 0600-1800 hrs. SES advised the applications are in process and should be moving forward soon.

Analyst Comment: The previously reported Patriots United March for Congress has been deleted and the Patriots United website no longer contains any information about this event; therefore, this event has been removed from the list of protests scheduled for January 6, 2021.

There have been several social media posts encouraging protesters to be armed.<sup>21 22</sup> Sam Andrews from the Freedom Center USA recently appeared on The Hagmann Report podcast calling for armed individuals to assemble in Washington, DC, beginning on January 4, 2021, to demand answers on election fraud. He advised listeners to travel in large, armed groups to discourage law enforcement action against armed individuals. When asked by the moderator if Andrews was organizing this event, Andrews replied he is not organizing anything and is just encouraging “concerned Americans to travel to DC” to exercise their first and second amendment rights. Andrews goes on to say if 500,000 armed citizens are in Washington, the police would “have a whole different attitude” and would not be able to attack the armed citizens.<sup>23</sup>

Analyst Comment: On January 1, 2021, Arlington County (Virginia) Police arrested Moses Geri M/W/38 of Weedsport, New York for several firearms offenses.<sup>24</sup> At the time of his arrest, he reportedly said he traveled from New York State to “protect Donald Trump on January 6th”. Mr. Geri is incarcerated awaiting a court hearing on January 5, 2021. USCP has prepared a BOLO in the event Mr. Geri is released on that date. A search of the name through USCP-WebRMS were negative.

On December 31, 2020, a posting on Parler by Lochlan Simmons (@Lochlansimmons)<sup>25</sup> is encouraging protestors that are coming to Washington, D.C on January 6th to come armed with rifles that are equivalent to a .300 Winchester Magnum and up, bring gas masks, and wear plate carriers. The author believes there will be confrontations between demonstrators and law enforcement and that “gas” will be used against the protestors and helicopters will be brought in to control the crowds. Therefore, having a gas mask and at least a .300 Winchester Magnum, shots can be fired at the helicopters to make them retreat.

Analyst Comment: A review of the posting has one comment by an individual that states that he has reported the author to the FBI on January 1, 2021. A search of the name through USCP-WebRMS were negative. A search of the name on other social media accounts were negative.

IICD has identified more than forty social media postings promoting protests on January 6, 2021. The number of people who indicate they are going to the event listed on these social media postings is relatively low. It is expected the majority of these postings are promoting the protests already listed in this report and IICD, therefore, did not list each social media posting as a separate event.

Expected Protests (Pro-Biden):

The They/Them Collective posted to their Instagram account a message<sup>26</sup> about the MAGA rallies in January. No specific details were published at this time about a protest location or time. Shutdown DC also posted to social media about the MAGA rallies on January 6, 2021, asking for donations “to help us defend democracy.”<sup>27</sup> Refuse Fascism is also promoting a protest on this same day.<sup>28</sup> While the groups have not indicated where they intend to gather, in the past they have demonstrated in the BLM Plaza area.

The group “I Approve this Message” is also planning a march entitled “Donald, You’re Fired! March on DC” for January 6, 2021.<sup>29</sup> They have indicated they would gather in the Union Square area, however, as of the date of this publication, they have not requested a permit for that area. Interest is also relatively low based on the Facebook post.

Protests:

At this time there are twenty known protests as it relates to this joint congressional session, the following are the details:

Pro-Trump Events-January 5

Attendance: TBD

Description: This is a nationwide vehicular and charter bus caravan calling all “Patriots” to meet in Washington DC to support the President and participate in Stop the Steal/Wild Protest on Capitol Grounds<sup>32 33</sup>.

- Analyst Comment: USCP-IOS Agent stated that a subject of a current investigation, revealed that some militia members who are participating in this event and staying in Virginia, plan to march into Washington, DC on January 5th, while armed. USCP-IOS is in coordination with local law enforcement and will provide relevant information as it becomes available. During the two previous MAGA Marches, participants of those events were arrested for weapons offenses, so this occurring on the 5th as well as the 6th is a strong possibility.

Moms for America<sup>34</sup>

Refuse Fascism<sup>48</sup>

Location: TBD

Date: January 6, 2021

Time: 1700

Attendance: Unknown

Organizer: Refuse Fascism DC

Description: Refuse Fascism DC has acknowledged the "Million MAGA March" on their social media accounts but has not detailed specific plans for a counter-protest<sup>49</sup> other than to say, "at 5pm in DC, bang pots and pans to drown out the fascist voices descending on their city."<sup>50</sup>

- Analyst Comment: Refuse Fascism DC is a small group with a history of non-violent civil disobedience and risking arrest. During previous "MAGA March" protests, Refuse Fascism DC organized counter-protests at Black Lives Matter Plaza but did not intentionally confront the "Proud Boys" and pro-Trump protesters like "They/Them Collective."<sup>51 52</sup>

Shutdown DC

IICD Overall Analysis:

Due to the tense political environment following the 2020 election, the threat of disruptive actions or violence cannot be ruled out. Supporters of the current president see January 6, 2021, as the last opportunity to overturn the results of the presidential election. This sense of desperation and disappointment may lead to more of an incentive to become violent. Unlike previous post-election protests, the targets of the pro-Trump supporters are not necessarily the counter-protesters as they were previously, but rather Congress itself is the target on the 6th. As outlined above, there has been a worrisome call for protesters to come to these events armed and there is the possibility that protesters may be inclined to become violent. Further, unlike the events on November 14, 2020, and December 12, 2020, there are several more protests scheduled on January 6, 2021, and the majority of them will be on Capitol grounds. The two protests expected to be the largest of the day—the Women for America First protest at the Ellipse and the Stop the Steal protest in Areas 8 and 9—may draw thousands of participants and both have been promoted by President Trump himself. The Stop the Steal protest in particular does not have a permit, but several high profile speakers, including Members of Congress are expected to speak at the event. This combined with Stop the Steal's propensity to attract white supremacists, militia members, and others who actively promote violence, may lead to a significantly dangerous situation for law enforcement and the general public alike.
